Few, if any, manufacturers of chemical specialties are more liberal with their samples, and more generous in the quantity delivered, than the proprietors of the well known disinfectant, Piatt's Chlorides. They send a pint bottle, and prepay express charges, and are pleased to do so, for, believing in the merit of the article, they know there is no better proof of the pudding than in the eating of it. Letters of acknowledgment and appreciation of course follow. Among the many thousands that Mr. Flatt has to exhibit is the following, of which he is, naturally, very proud: -- I have not only used the samples of Piatt's Chlorides you were kind enough to send me, but have used a good many other bottles of it in my hospital, and in my private practice. The preparation is a very valuable one. Very truly, yours, Hunter McGuire. April 11, 1891. Richmond, Va. Wood Wool. I take great pleasure in recommending the use of your Wood-Wool Preparations for surgical dressings, and as an absorbent of great value in medical use. It is by far the most economical as well as antiseptic dressing that I have ever used. The ordinary antiseptic gauzes which I had used formerly are now laid on shelf in favor of your prepared tissue, which, for all the qualities required in a perfect, convenient, economical and comfortable dressing, cannot be equalled by any other dressing in the market. In my experience it is...
