D. 1567, to Abner Torrey, of Weymouth, Massachusetts With All Descendants of Abner Torrey, With an Appendix This book would not have been compiled but for the influence and service of three women to whom credit is due therefor: the suggestions of it by my mother some thirty years ago, and toward which she gathered records which would be unattainable now; the clerical aid of my daughter Nellie; and the present knowledge of Mrs. Sophia Wadsworth, rich in incident and suggestion, which has furnished clues to information essential to the fullness of the record, and otherwise irrecoverably lost. Books like this are not made in answer to a commercial demand, but rather to gratify private sentiment and various personal motives of no interest to the world at large. They are probably the unworthy forerunners of a class of books which may be produced in the...
