PREFACE The papers here presented together are republished, the first three from the Proceedings of the American Pharmaceutical Association for 1860, and the fourth from the American Journal of Pharmacy for January, 1870. In the discussion which followed the reading of the Report on the U. S. Pharmacopoeia before the Association, objections were made to the extent and character of the changes recommended in the Report. Although these objections were not general, nor the objectors sufficiently numerous to express the sense of the Association, yet as the principal objections came from Prof. Procter, who was a member of the Committee on the Pharmacopoeia, and whose judgment is entitled to great respect, the writer offered the following resolution to accompany the Report when published, and the resolution was adopted: Moved by Dr. Squibb, that in the reference of his report on the Pharmacopoeia to...
