Ventnor, Steephill, St. Lawrence, Old Park, Mirables, Puckaster, and Rocken-End, are among the principal of these. Passing from this marvellous region, the eye is arrested by the towering heights of St. Catherine s, yielding in its turn to the dismal features of Blackgang Chine. We next traverse the bays of Chale and Brixton, till by-and-by Freshwater Bay, with its magnificent line of cliffs, arrests the attention, and delights the eye. The other and kindred features of this part of the coast, ScratchelPs Bay, Needle Rock, and Alum Bay are then brought into view. The two new forts and Hurst Castle, soon occur to the eye, and Yarmouth succeeds; Thorney Bay and the river of Newton passed, we speedily arrive at the point whence we set out--the busy harbour of Cowes. It may be remarked, in conclusion, that although this beautiful island can only...
