Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Provisional Manual of Instruction: For the Hospital Corps, U. S. An;, And Company Bearers The drill part of this Manual covers the ground in outline of a number of Manuals from which it was compiled. With the view of securing quick comprehension of its movements by men who have previously served in the combatant ranks, its commands were made to conform as nearly as possible to those of the Tactics now used by the Army. During the course of its construction much valuable assistance was rendered by Major E. C. Woodruff, Fifth Infantry, and Lieut. W. C. Brown, First Cavalry. The First Aid part comprises only the titles of the subjects which should be taught by medical officers, the extent of such instruction being left to their discretion. The illustrations were made from photographs taken from life, by Lieut. H. A. Beed, Second Artillery. For convenience, the paragraphs of Orders, Circulars, and Tactics referred to in the text are appended. Instructions in Bearer Drill and First Aid will be given by medical officers to...
