Not bothering himself to call the elevator boy, he climbed the marble staircase of this thoroughly fire-proof building. A liveried servant answered the bell call at the studio entrance. The door opened into a vestibule, at the opposite end of which sj: ill another door conducted to an ante-room. Beyond this apartment was the reception-room, which was carpeted with Wilton of white ground-work, and fitted out with elegant court furniture imported from Europe for the Irvington villa and saved unharmed from the wreck of the conflagration. Bear-skin rugs, the trophies of Bradley Outerbridge s hunting expeditions in the Rocky Mountains, were disposed here and there about the floor. The walls of the reception-room were hung with some of the artist s finest California landscapes, and on the mantel stood a large-sized autograph picture of his friend, the Emperor of Germany,...
