Mysterious Press, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Praise for Purgatory "The things Jack witnesses these days . . . would cause a saint to go blind. And Jack, whose heroism is fueled by plain old-fashioned rage, bile and bitterness,' is no saint. Never was, never will be. Amen."-- New York Times Book Review "Excellent. . . . Bruen maintains his trademark hip references and highly poetic style, but fans expecting the usual are in for some shock therapy, as he busts out one series-changing surprise after another."-- Publishers Weekly (starred review) "Bruen's storytelling style, a stream-of-consciousness mix of prose and verse, strips away Galway's tourist-board faade and offers a darkly comic social commentary. . . . Noir fans will find what they love here."-- Booklist (starred review) "Bruen is an Irish treasure, holding his own in a line of literary giants including Joyce, Yeats, Wilde and Beckett. . . . Purgatory may be the best of the Jack Taylor series."--Shelf Awareness "Another fine installment in the series that defines Irish noir."-- BookPage "Strangely poetic. Bruen uses the automatic weapon's staccato burst writing style, lacing it with current event allusions."-- Huntington News "One of the most sublime pleasures in crime fiction is reading a new book by Ken Bruen. For almost twenty years now, he's been delighting mystery and noir audiences with his stunning, poetic books of the shadowy side of life. . . . Purgatory is one of the darkest books yet. . . . This is real writing, the likes of which we are blessed to behold."-- Strand Magazine "Gleefully profane and joyfully blasphemous, the prose in Ken Bruen's Jack Taylor books is so unapologetically lyrical and right that it fooking hurts. . . . No matter how black...
