Sir Warham Sentleger, together with Baron Cusake and White, of Waterford, are in the west. Of their proceedings I can as yet say little. The Earl of Desmond hath married the Lord of Douboins daughter; but why do I trouble your Lordship with such frivolous matter The counsell there sent unto me by one Oliver Sutton a letter, willing me to say my knowledge concerning a certain booke exhibited by the said Oliver to her Majestie. I will, by Godes help, say freely what I know, and yett I feare to small purpose if it be heard with a deafe eare. Being desirous to know somewhat in what tearmes your Lordship and the Lord DeputieJ stood in, I presumed upon some sett occasion here had to enter thereof some talke, who, in the ende saide Suerly, my Lord, I am sorry it is not,...
