Then and there the influence for better English and speech from the head of that school could not be seen or felt. Fellow superintendents, this was one of the greatest lessons of my life. I trust my calling the incident to your attention may induce you to resolve as I did. Another very serious problem is to secure efficient and well-trained teachers who really believe in their work and whose influence for speech for the deaf is sufficiently strong to overbalance the opposing influences. The standard of our teaching force must be kept high. We should select teachers who have normal or university training whenever possible. Successful public-school teachers with special training in speech teaching and methods employed in educating the deaf usually not only make good in our work but often turn out to be our very best educators. I should not...
