Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Constitution and Its Makers: An Address Delivered Before the Literary and Historical Association of North Carolina Mr. Lodge said: Before this society and on such an occasion to speak on any subject not connected with the history of our common country would hardly be possible and would certainly not be fitting. I have, therefore, chosen a subject which touches the history of the United States at every point. I shall try to set before you some of the results of a great work in which your State and mine alike took part a century and a quarter ago and which possesses an interest and an importance as deep and as living to-day as at the moment of its inception. I shall touch upon some present questions, but I shall speak without the remotest reference to politics or parties, for my subject transcends both. I shall speak as a student of our history with reverence for the past and with a profound faith in the future. In a word, I shall speak simply as an...
