Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Charles Rovellini: A Drama of the Disunited States of North America The books of Moses seem to have been written by other writers before him. This legislator, although he was a man of a great mind, his laws are not of God. The Creator, being perfect, could not be imperfect in his language, nor a tyrant to the Israelites and to other nations of His creation. Infernal, theologian rulers left to us the histories of seven thousand years. Not only millions of innocent and better educated nations than their conquerors must have been annihilated; their historical records must have been burned, as we know the burned library of Alexandria, sciences and arts. We, the posterity of those selfish rulers, we rue the great loss of the past age progress! The selfish monsters exterminated, even, the memory or records of those unfortunate nations! And such tyrannical vandalism was perpetrated for wishing to appear, themselves, the first legislators to their posterity! And forced their children to believe, they had spoken, face to face, with God! Hence, was originated Theocracy, Monarchy, and Despotism. The democratic or republican government, being the only government for which God created mankind, it will never reach its perfection but from the true philosophy of man, free from all religious priestcraft. The only monuments of Central America tell us of nations whose generations must have been extinguished. The infinity of solar systems, do they not tell us that this world had no beginning? Had He lived in darkness during his first eternity, God could not be God. We can conceive our souls still existing into more subtle matter, but the Eternal Spirit, out of...
