From Jarrow to Java: (On a Beer Scooter)

By Joe Writeson

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 322 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. A book based on some of the unique characters and situations encountered in the course of a large construction project in East Java during a crucial time in Indonesia's history. The cast includes all the usual suspects Europeans, Australians, Americans etc. but the starring roles are Indonesians. Centred around the building of an Independent Power Plant consisting of eight coal-fired power stations, distribution system and extensive infrastructure with over ten thousand employees at the height of construction activities. The account is based around the job, the impact on the area, the people, the ladies, the pubs, the problems, the perceptions. . . and misconceptions. Featuring an introduction to Javanese customs and culture plus their effect on interaction between expats and locals, including the often weird and wonderful way that Indonesians view foreigners . . . plus how some Westerners behave when given the keys to the sweetie shop. The timescale covers immediately before, during and after the downfall of the Soeharto regime. A lot of the characters recur throughout the stories, some of the chapters are linked or cross...
